

Faridah Awang Scholars Program, Inc.

Contact: Dr. Faridah Awang, CEO, admin@fascholars.org
<http://www.fascholars.org>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Application Deadline: May 24, 2024

ACCEPTING 2024 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

The Faridah Awang Scholars Program Helps Students Pay for Education

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY, USA, January 31, 2024--The Faridah Awang Scholars Program, Inc. (FAScholars) officially began accepting applications for the 2024 Marcia A. Anderson Merit Scholarship, Wook Ismail Merit Scholarship, Asiah Khamis Scholarship, and Hashim Jamani Scholarship through Friday, May 24, 2024.

Each scholarship has its specific eligibility criteria and purpose based on the FAScholars Program's missions. Eligible high school, undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral students can apply for the scholarship at the organization's website, fascholars.org

"In its fifth year, the FAScholars Program aspires to make a huge impact on the world. Our scholarships are offered worldwide regardless of creed, color, or culture," said Dr. Faridah Awang, CEO and Founder of the FAScholars Program, Inc.

Those chosen as scholarship finalists will be invited to online interviews with the FAScholars Program board members during June through July 2024. The scholarship winners will be notified in August 2024, with financial scholarship award disbursement in September 2024.

About FAScholars: Founded by Dr. Faridah Awang in 2019, the mission of the FAScholars is to facilitate access to education, especially in underserved communities on a global stage. Donations are accepted at any time to support the scholarship initiative. Donations are tax-deductible as the FASP is a 509 (a)(2) non-profit organization in the USA (Federal Tax I.D. 84-3088884) and may be made by mail to The Faridah Awang Scholars Program, 118 Castlewood Dr., Richmond, KY 40475, USA.

###